GHAQDA KORALI U ORKESTRALI MARIJA BAMBINA

(Maria Bambina Choral and Orchestral Society)

Founded in 1947.

Since many years ago stringed instruments were very common and popular among the inhabitants who were very fond of folk music. This has resulted in the formation of a local orchestra which is now complemented by a Choir. This Society is very active in musical and choral performances. A school of music is administered within the Society with a good number of students. The Orchestra and Choir participate on special occasions organised by the local Council and provides the musical services for the Parish feasts. The Society presents a classical concert on the 1st of September at the Parish Square on the occasion of the Town's feast. The society has also been assigned the day-to-day running and upkeeping of the World War II shelters which have been opened as a War Museum.

These Societies represent the two major political parties in Malta. Their mission is to promote the political ideology of their respective parties. Locally they organise political conferences, distribute political information material and offer their services to their party members. They are also very active during the general and local council elections. Both local committees participate with other societies in local activities. Their premises are very popular with their members. Indoor game competitions and socials are organised from time to time. Non members are welcome.

GHAQDA DILETTANTI TAN-NAR – MARIJA BAMBINA

(Maria Bambina Amateur Pyrotechnic Society)

Founded in 1989

This is a Society of pyrotechnical enthusiasts. Their main aim is to organise the firework displays during the Town's Feast from the end of August to the 8th of September, the Feast day. Members are very active collecting funds and preparing the final placings and execution of the fireworks according to a prearranged programme. Firework enthusiasts are known to be very dedicated, hard working, diligent and responsible as one would expect from anyone who holds this trade as a hobby.
